Tremont Realty Capital Announces New Assistant Portfolio Manager

Tremont Realty Capital announces Steven C. Skelley has joined the company as an Assistant Portfolio Manager in the Boston office. He will primarily work on due diligence, closing and asset managing direct Tremont investments. Mr. Skelley was most recently a Director of Asset Management and Transactions at AIMCO (Apartment Investment and Management Company) where he was responsible for identifying transaction opportunities for a 30,000-unit multifamily real estate investment portfolio. He has prior experience with Meditrust Corporation where he managed a $3 billion healthcare real estate portfolio and managed a team of analysts in implementing the corporate reorganization plan. Mr. Skelley holds a BS in Accounting from Bentley College.

Executive Director, Dan Mee said, "We are delighted to have a person of Steven's caliber join our portfolio management team. He has the qualifications and experience necessary to meet the demanding needs of this position."
